

SZX10 - Advanced routine zoom stereo microscope

The Olympus SZX10 is designed for routine research. It offers a maximum numerical aperture (NA) of 0.2, producing a resolution of 600 line pairs per millimeter. With this resolution (and peerless magnification) you can make your work more efficient, more precise and gain much more information from your samples...Read More

