

GX41 - small inverted metallurgical microscope

The GX41 is a compact microscope equipped with all the functions required for metallurgical observation. The GX41 has adopted infinity corrected UIS optics while retaining the handiness and mobility of its predecessor the CK40M...Read More

