

SZX16 - Research stereo zoom microscope

The Olympus SZX16 is designed for advanced research and leaves other stereos in its wake with a maximum numerical aperture (NA) of 0.3, producing a superior resolution of 900 line pairs per millimeter. With such amazing resolution (and peerless magnification) you can make your work more efficient, more precise and gain much more information from your samples...Read More

